

Tuesday, October 3, 2017

7:00 am	Registration Open	Osceola Promenade
7:00 am - 8:00 am	Continental Breakfast	Osceola Ballroom A, B & C
8:00 am - 9:30 am	General Session	Osceola Ballroom A, B & C
	Welcome Marjorie Murray Director, ECTAC Keynote Address Dr. Dana Godek Administrative Director, Compliance and Special Projects School District of Palm Beach County Told through personal narrative, this is the story of a journey through multiple ESSA-authorized programs and how the decisions educators make impact students, for better, or worse.

9:30 am - 9:50 am	Break	Please Visit our Wonderful Sponsors!	Osceola Ballroom A, B & C
-------------------	-------	---	--------------------------------------

9:50 am - 10:50 am Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 1

Dante B. Fascell Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	Dante B. Fascell Elementary administration and teachers are committed to a holistic approach in teaching students. We will present a variety of activities that are constantly provided to reinforce and extended the curriculum. Learn how we create an active involvement with community partners that are key to our success.	Celebration B
Hialeah Gardens Middle School (Miami - Dade)	In this session, learn how leaders at Hialeah Gardens Middle School have consistently developed creative systems which ensure high quality rigorous curricula in every classroom through data analysis, professional development, grade level and interdisciplinary Common Planning, the development of seven academies and participation in the electives programs.	Harmony A
Hilltop Elementary School (Hardee)	In this session, participants will learn how educators at Hilltop Elementary School have developed a Response to Intervention program that ensures high quality, rigorous data driven standards based instruction in every classroom. This is accomplished while simultaneously building a school culture that is positive, and respectful, independent, with dedicated learners through high expectations and with the goal of leadership in mind.	Harmony B
Howard D. McMillan Middle School (Miami - Dade)	“Thinking Outside Of The Box” to transform traditional electives into innovative, “State Of The Art Choices”.	St. Cloud B
Joella C. Good Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	A presentation of how the staff at Joella C. Good Elementary combines the high expectations of academic achievement with the values necessary to live harmoniously in an ever-changing world.	Kissimmee B
Crosspointe Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Leadership’s Role in Student Success	Celebration A
Cranberry Elementary School (Sarasota)	Come hear our school plan for connecting all the pieces to make a successful science program that shines its light on all the other subjects at our school.	St. Cloud A
Odyssey Charter School (Brevard)	Learn how “healthy” leads to high achieving with Odyssey Charter School. Our vision of a green and healthy environment has resulted in the school being named a National Green Ribbon School, Florida Green School, Gold Award of Distinction from the Healthy US School Challenge Award, and a high performing charter school by the Commissioner of Education.	Partin A

10:50 am - 11:20 am	Break	Visit a Sponsor for a Door Prize Drawing Ticket!	Osceola Ballroom A, B & C
---------------------	-------	---	--------------------------------------

11:20 am - 12:20 pm Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 2

Yulee Elementary School (Nassau)	Collaboration is something everyone says they do, but few do well. Come see how at Yulee Elementary School collaboration is a way of life for everyone who walks through our door!	Harmony B
Jay Elementary School (Santa Rosa)	“ Full STEAM Ahead! ” In this session, participants will hear how teachers and administrators work together to create a STEAM culture. High effect strategies for supporting innovation to include resources and technology tools will be provided for all attendees.	Celebration B

11:20 am - 12:20 pm Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 2 (Continued)
Bonita Springs Elementary School (Lee)	The expectation gap, is a self-fulfilling prophecy where students are expected to perform differently because of race and socioeconomic status. This translates to less rigor and predestined underperformance. Come find out how Bonita Springs Elementary does not accept the expectation gap and is embracing relationships to close the achievement gap.	Kissimmee B
Forest Glen Middle School (Broward)	What is the "Belichick Way?" Join us as we look at our data, school's culture, expectations, and programs that have created an organization positioned for continual success.	St. Cloud B
Crystal River Primary School (Citrus)	We will share how this five year process of creating a sense of community changed student behavior, impacted our school's reputation, developed positive parent and community relationships, established high expectations for students and staff, focused instruction on standards and high-yield strategies for engaging students with poverty in mind and provided fun for all . We look forward to sharing with you!	Celebration A
Wynnebrook Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Wynnebrook Elementary School in suburban West Palm Beach, Florida has been an "A" graded school for 15 years consecutively while having a poverty rate of 93%. Learn how the unique systems surrounding a single school culture make this school an outlier among the rest.	St. Cloud A
Golden Grove Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Relationships, Culture and Data ROCK! Learn how the ROCKin Gators leveraged their school culture, systems and data to improve student achievement.	Partin A
Renaissance Learning Platinum Level Sponsor Presentation	Join Renaissance to discuss how differentiation is only the first step on the path to personalization. Learn more about what's being done today, what the future holds and how you can begin working towards a personalized classroom.	Harmony A

12:20 pm - 1:30 pm Buffet Lunch	Osceola Ballroom A, B & C
--	--------------------------------------

1:30 pm - 2:30 pm Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 3
Sallie Jones Elementary School (Charlotte)	At SJE, three Wildly Important Goals are embedded in all decision making and have created an environment where all staff and students feel inspired to work hard and persevere through obstacles. Learn about how we developed these Goals and the impact they have had on school culture and academic achievement.	Celebration B
Rockway Middle School (Miami - Dade)	According to Dr. Kent D. Peterson, a professor in the Department of Educational Administration at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a school with a positive culture has "a set of values that supports ...a positive, caring atmosphere." Rockway Middle School, an urban middle school in the Heart of Miami Dade County, attributes much of its success to the culture that exists at the school. In this workshop you'll hear about the staff commitment, parental involvement, school activities, and strong learning culture that have contributed to the school's success. You'll walk away with several concrete strategies you can implement to enhance your school's culture.	Harmony A
Pinemount Elementary School (Columbia)	Come join Donna and Rachel and learn the secrets for Pinemount's success. Hidden treasures are buried in all schools. Join us and learn how to create a culture where everyone Expects the Best, Expect Success.	Harmony B
Flagami Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	"At the Home of the Foxes ALL our Superheroes intervene to help our students succeed. Schoolwide intervention takes place at the same time, every day and in every classroom. This best practice gained quick schoolwide support and provided the opportunity to address the needs and strength of ALL our Lil Foxes"	St. Cloud B
Oakshire Elementary School (Orange)	During lesson modeling activities, teachers at Oakshire Elementary observe a team member teach an upcoming lesson and engage in a follow-up discussion. The discussion centers around the extent to which the lesson aligns to the established Florida Standards and the strategies the teacher utilized to monitor student progress toward the learning goal. The rigor of the lesson is analyzed to ensure it meets the level required by the Standards. At the end of the activity, all teachers on the team walk away with a well-crafted lesson that can be executed in their classrooms.	Kissimmee B
Vineland Elementary School (Charlotte)	At Vineland Elementary School collaboration is the key to success. In this session you will learn how we engage our school community by fostering student leadership, teacher led professional development, and parent teacher partnerships.	Celebration A

Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 3 Continued Next Page

1:30 pm - 2:30 pm Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 3 (Continued)
Discovery Elementary School (Broward)	Making Discovery Elementary "A" Great Place to Be! Discovery Elementary is a wonderful learning community that is inclusive for all students, parents, and staff, where expectations are high and everyone, students, staff and families are expected to achieve and to reach for excellence. The community takes tremendous pride in its school making Discovery Elementary "A" Great Place to Be!	St. Cloud A
Oriole Beach Elementary School (Santa Rosa)	Come find out why "O-B-E is the place to be!"	Partin A
2:30 pm - 3:00 pm Break with Refreshments Osceola Ballroom A, B & C
3:00 pm - 4:00 pm Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 4
Cranberry Elementary School (Sarasota)	Come hear our school plan for connecting all the pieces to make a successful science program that shines its light on all the other subjects at our school.	St. Cloud A
Dante B. Fascell Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	Dante B. Fascell Elementary administration and teachers are committed to a holistic approach in teaching students. We will present a variety of activities that are constantly provided to reinforce and extended the curriculum. Learn how we create an active involvement with community partners that are key to our success.	Partin A
Howard D. McMillan Middle School (Miami - Dade)	"Thinking Outside Of The Box" to transform traditional electives into innovative, "State Of The Art Choices".	Harmony B
Boca Raton Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Yes you Khan and Yes you Should! #techCulture A single school culture adoption of a technology with the deeper understanding of not just how it functions on campus, but why it functions on campus.	Kissimmee B
Sneads Elementary School (Jackson)	Families are like branches on a tree, we grow in different directions yet, our roots remain as one; Join us to learn how we plant a seed of desire to succeed in every student at Sneads Elementary School.	Celebration A
Lyons Creek Middle School (Broward)	Join us as we take you on a Fantastic Voyage to Increasing Student Achievement . You will learn how the second largest middle school (2,000 students) in Broward County, FL is exceeding expectations through a commitment to excellence, teacher collaboration, progress monitoring and a laser focus on doing what is in the best interest of students!!!	St. Cloud B
Ethel K. Beckham Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	"Nurturing Every Child's Potential through Data Debriefing Protocols"	Celebration B
PCG Education Platinum Level Sponsor Presentation	The Dangers of Low Expectations -Many districts are feeling the pinch of the ever-present achievement gap for disadvantaged students. This session will explore root causes and approaches for systemic improvement to outline a framework for culturally responsive classrooms and transform instruction to effectively engage all students.	Harmony A

*6:30 pm - 9:30 pm
Awards Banquet
Osceola Ballroom A, B, & C*

Wednesday, October 4, 2017

7:15 am - 8:00 am Continental Breakfast Osceola Ballroom A, B & C

8:00 am - 9:00 am Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 5

Golden Grove Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Relationships, Culture and Data ROCK! Learn how the ROCKin Gators leveraged their school culture, systems and data to improve student achievement.	Harmony B
Forest Glen Middle School (Broward)	What is the “Belichick Way?” Join us as we look at our data, school’s culture, expectations, and programs that have created an organization positioned for continual success.	Harmony A
Sallie Jones Elementary School (Charlotte)	At SJE, three Wildly Important Goals are embedded in all decision making and have created an environment where all staff and students feel inspired to work hard and persevere through obstacles. Learn about how we developed these Goals and the impact they have had on school culture and academic achievement.	Partin A
Rockway Middle School (Miami - Dade)	According to Dr. Kent D. Peterson, a professor in the Department of Educational Administration at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a school with a positive culture has “a set of values that supports ...a positive, caring atmosphere.” Rockway Middle School, an urban middle school in the Heart of Miami Dade County, attributes much of its success to the culture that exists at the school. In this workshop you’ll hear about the staff commitment, parental involvement, school activities, and strong learning culture that have contributed to the school’s success. You’ll walk away with several concrete strategies you can implement to enhance your school’s culture.	Kissimmee B
Ethel K. Beckham Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	“Nurturing Every Child’s Potential through Data Debriefing Protocols”	Celebrity B
Crosspointe Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Leadership’s Role in Student Success	Celebrity A
Boca Raton Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Yes you Khan and Yes you Should! #techCulture A single school culture adoption of a technology with the deeper understanding of not just how it functions on campus, but why it functions on campus.	St. Cloud A
Vineland Elementary School (Charlotte)	At Vineland Elementary School collaboration is the key to success. In this session you will learn how we engage our school community by fostering student leadership, teacher led professional development, and parent teacher partnerships.	Partin B

9:00 am - 9:30 am Break Please Visit our Wonderful Sponsors Osceola Ballroom A, B & C

9:30 am - 10:30 am Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 6

Joella C. Good Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	A presentation of how the staff at Joella C. Good Elementary combines the high expectations of academic achievement with the values necessary to live harmoniously in an ever-changing world.	Kissimmee B
Lyons Creek Middle School (Broward)	Join us as we take you on a Fantastic Voyage to Increasing Student Achievement . You will learn how the second largest middle school (2,000 students) in Broward County, FL is exceeding expectations through a commitment to excellence, teacher collaboration, progress monitoring and a laser focus on doing what is in the best interest of students!!!	Harmony A
Bonita Springs Elementary School (Lee)	The expectation gap, is a self-fulfilling prophecy where students are expected to perform differently because of race and socioeconomic status. This translates to less rigor and predestined underperformance. Come find out how Bonita Springs Elementary does not accept the expectation gap and is embracing relationships to close the achievement gap.	Harmony B
Hilltop Elementary School (Hardee)	In this session, participants will learn how educators at Hilltop Elementary School have developed a Response to Intervention program that ensures high quality, rigorous data driven standards based instruction in every classroom. This is accomplished while simultaneously building a school culture that is positive, respectful, independent, with dedicated learners through high expectations and with the goal of leadership in mind.	St. Cloud A
Flagami Elementary School (Miami - Dade)	“At the Home of the Foxes ALL our Superheroes intervene to help our students succeed. Schoolwide intervention takes place at the same time, every day and in every classroom. This best practice gained quick schoolwide support and provided the opportunity to address the needs and strength of ALL our Lil Foxes”.	Celebration B

9:30 am - 10:30 am Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 6 (Continued)
Sneads Elementary School (Jackson)	Families are like branches on a tree, we grow in different directions yet, our roots remain as one; Join us to learn how we plant a seed of desire to succeed in every student at Sneads Elementary School.	Partin A
Jay Elementary School (Santa Rosa)	"Full STEAM Ahead!" In this session, participants will hear how teachers and administrators work together to create a STEAM culture. High effect strategies for supporting innovation to include resources and technology tools will be provided for all attendees.	Celebration A
Crystal River Primary School (Citrus)	We will share how this five year process of creating a sense of community changed student behavior, impacted our school's reputation, developed positive parent and community relationships, established high expectations for students and staff, focused instruction on standards and high-yield strategies for engaging students with poverty in mind and provided fun for all . We look forward to sharing with you!	Partin B

10:30 am - 11:00 am Break Last Chance for Door Prize Drawing Tickets! Osceola Ballroom A, B & C

11:00 am - 12:00 pm Concurrent Breakout Sessions - Block 7
Discovery Elementary School (Broward)	Making Discovery Elementary "A" Great Place to Be! Discovery Elementary is a wonderful learning community that is inclusive for all—students, parents, and staff, where expectations are high and everyone, students, staff and families are expected to achieve and to reach for excellence. The community takes tremendous pride in its school making Discovery Elementary "A" Great Place to Be!	Kissimmee B
Yulee Elementary School (Nassau)	Collaboration is something everyone says they do, but few do well. Come see how at Yulee Elementary School collaboration is a way of life for everyone who walks through our door!	Harmony A
Hialeah Gardens Middle School (Miami - Dade)	In this session, learn how leaders at Hialeah Gardens Middle School have consistently developed creative systems which ensure high quality rigorous curricula in every classroom through data analysis, professional development, grade level and interdisciplinary Common Planning, the development of seven academies and participation in the electives programs.	Partin A
Oriole Beach Elementary School (Santa Rosa)	Come find out why "O-B-E is the place to be!"	Harmony B
Oakshire Elementary School (Orange)	During lesson modeling activities, teachers at Oakshire Elementary observe a team member teach an upcoming lesson and engage in a follow-up discussion. The discussion centers around the extent to which the lesson aligns to the established Florida Standards and the strategies the teacher utilized to monitor student progress toward the learning goal. The rigor of the lesson is analyzed to ensure it meets the level required by the Standards. At the end of the activity, all teachers on the team walk away with a well-crafted lesson that can be executed in their classrooms.	Celebration B
Odyssey Charter School (Brevard)	Learn how "healthy" leads to high achieving with Odyssey Charter School. Our vision of a green and healthy environment has resulted in the school being named a National Green Ribbon School, Florida Green School, Gold Award of Distinction from the Healthy US School Challenge Award, and a high performing charter school by the Commissioner of Education.	Celebration A
Pinemount Elementary School (Columbia)	Come join Donna and Rachel and learn the secrets for Pinemount's success. Hidden treasures are buried in all schools. Join us and learn how to create a culture where everyone Expects the Best, Expect Success.	St. Cloud A
Wynnebrook Elementary School (Palm Beach)	Wynnebrook Elementary School in suburban West Palm Beach, Florida has been an "A" graded school for 15 years consecutively while having a poverty rate of 93%. Learn how the unique systems surrounding a single school culture make this school an outlier among the rest.	Partin B

12:00 noon Grab and Go Lunch Door Prize Winners Posted Osceola Ballroom A, B & C

